High Five Entertainment, a Brick Top Productions (OTCBB: BTOP) Company, to Produce Popular Rich Christensen-Developed TV & Internet Projects

Previous Projects Include Car Racing TV Shows PINKS, PINKS: ALL OUT, and PASS TIME

Boca Raton, Florida — February 27, 2014 – Brick Top Productions, Inc. (OTCBB: BTOP; “Brick Top” or the “Company”), announced today that through its majority owned subsidiary, High Five Entertainment (“HFE”), it will be collaborating with television maverick, Rich Christensen, the creator, producer and host of several successful car racing television show franchises, to exclusively produce the television and internet show projects that he is presently developing.

Mr. Christensen is the creator, executive producer and host of the highly successful and extremely popular racing television show franchises, ‘PINKS’ and ‘PINKS: ALL OUT’, ranked number two and three on the Fox-owned SPEED Channel, which was rebranded in August 2013 as the general-interest sports network Fox Sports 1. Mr. Christensen was also the creator of the popular game show ‘PASS TIME’. Originally produced by HFE, PASS TIME had a historic 150+ episode run on the SPEED Channel. With this collaboration, HFE has the opportunity to again be named the exclusive production company of record for the PASS TIME game show series once the formal rights negotiations between Mr. Christensen and Fox Sports have been concluded.

Martin Fischer, President of High Five Entertainment, who has had a long-time relationship with Mr. Christensen, commented, “We absolutely love working with Rich. He is truly an original in a marketplace that can at times be very conventional. And like us, outside of the box is where he feels most at home. We look forward to this marking the beginning of a very long and fruitful collaboration and to continuing our work with Rich’s popular PASS TIME series.”

“I’m thrilled to hand over the reins to my projects to Martin and his team at High Five Entertainment,” stated Mr. Christensen. “Having worked with them successfully on PASS TIME, I’ve seen them bring my project ideas, as well as those of others, to life with amazing creativity and tremendous production value. They are the perfect production partner for my shows and will be instrumental in getting my projects to a level of production excellence that both of our teams are known for delivering.”

Under specific terms of the agreement, HFE will produce Mr. Christensen’s current development stage projects for an initial period of three months, within project budgets mutually developed by Mr. Christensen and HFE. During the term, Brick Top will provide monthly development financing, some of which will be recouped within each project budget. The agreement is effective February 20, 2014, and is renewable for additional 3 month terms upon the mutual agreement of Mr. Christensen and HFE.
