Guidelines for Providing Adequate Current Information

This Supplementary Information to our Current Report may contain certain “forward looking statements” (as such item is defined in Section 211 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended). These statements reflect our current expectations regarding our actions and possible future results of operations, performance, and achievements. These forward-looking statements are made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, regulations of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission, and common law.

Whenever possible, we have tried to identify these forward-looking statements by using words such as “anticipate”, “believe”, “estimate”, “expect”, “plan”, “intend” and similar expressions. These statements reflect our current beliefs and are based on information currently available to us. Accordingly, these statements are subject to certain risks, uncertainties, and contingencies, which could cause our actual results, performance, or achievements to differ materially from those expressed in, or implied by, such statements that may be made to reflect events or circumstances after the date of this Supplementary Disclosure Statement.

Under the advice of counsel, on March 26, 2017 we placed our Lender, the TCA Global Master Credit Fund L.P., into default for inducing us, by misrepresentation and omissions, to enter into the Asset Purchase Agreement Dated December 30, 2016 and related documents:

More specifically we contend that the TCA Global Master Credit Fund L.P., failed to release escrow funds, provided inaccurate financial projections and failed to disclose debts related to the assets among other things. TCA responded on March 29, 2017 by sending us a notice of default with a 10 day notice to cure by paying all fees TCA claims without offset of the monies the company has claimed is owed by TCA.

Management hopes to be able to come to an amicable solution to the matter but is willing to take the matter to a court of competent jurisdiction to have the matter adjudicated there.

While there are no guarantees that we can settle this amicably or without litigation or that litigation would be successful, Management is confident that the outcome should be favorable to the Company; that taking this action is in the best interests of our shareholders and that our operating company, Big Rhino, will suffer little or no disruption in its business during the pendency of the resolution of this dispute.

Our subsidiary, Big Rhino Corporation continues to work hard to grow its business for the benefit of our shareholders and will continue to do so through the negotiations and/or litigation with TCA.
