On November 9, 2017, Huey Long, the Chief Executive Officer of Life Clips, Inc. (the “Company”) and a member of the Company’s board of directors, notified the Company’s board of directors of his resignation as Chief Executive Officer and a director, effective November 24, 2017. Mr. Long sent a letter (the “Resignation Letter”), dated November 10, 2017, to the Company’s board of directors relating to his resignation in which he alleged that the Company’s “Miami-based convertible note holders continue to strengthen their grip on the Company” and indicated that he had not been paid by the Company since July 2017. In connection with his resignation, Mr. Long proposed that he and the Company enter into a mutual release agreement and that the Company execute a promissory note in Mr. Long’s favor. As of the date hereof, the Company has not entered into a mutual release agreement with Mr. Long and has not executed a promissory note in Mr. Long’s favor. A copy of the Resignation Letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 17.1.

The Company provided Mr. Long with a copy of the disclosure contained herein, prior to its filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”), and provided Mr. Long with the opportunity to furnish the Company as promptly as possible with a letter addressed to the Commission stating whether or not he agrees with the statements herein and, if not, stating the respects in which he does not agree. If the Company receives such a letter from Mr. Long, the Company will attach a copy of the letter as an exhibit to an amendment to this Current Report on Form 8-K within two business days after receipt by the Company.

November 10, 2017

Dear Board Members

Please accept this letter as my two week notice of my formal resignation as CEO and as Director of Life Clips. My resignation will be effective on November 24, 2017, unless the board chooses to release me sooner, which I would welcome.

Since February, I have led the company in the best interest of all shareholders. Unfortunately, the Miami-based convertible note holders continue to strengthen their grip on the Company. As a result, I am no longer comfortable leading or certifying SEC documents on behalf of the Company. Also, I have not been compensated per my employment agreement since July, 2017.

Attached is a mutual release document and note for my compensation that is due to me. Please review and sign this release and note and return to me prior to November 17th or sooner as the Board may determine.

Sincerely,

/s/ Huey Long
