Life Clips, Inc.
Footnotes to Financial Statements September 30, 2017

NOTE 1. ORGANIZATION AND OPERATIONS

Business and basis of presentation – Life Clips, Inc. (the “Company”) was incorporated in Wyoming on March 20, 2013 as Blue Sky Media Corporation and its principal business was developing, financing, producing and distributing motion pictures and related entertainment products. Following the Company’s October 2, 2015 acquisition of Klear Kapture, Inc. (“Klear Kapture”), the Company continued Klear Kapture’s business of developing a body camera and an auditable software solution suitable for use by law enforcement. The Company changed its name to Life Clips, Inc. on November 3, 2015 in order to better reflect its business operations at the time.

On July 11, 2016, the Company completed its previously announced acquisition (the “Acquisition”) of all of the outstanding equity securities of Butterfly Energy Ltd. (“Butterfly”), an Israel-based corporation that develops and distributes a single-use, cordless battery under the brand name Mobeego for use with cellular phones and other mobile devices. Butterfly is now a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company. The Acquisition was completed pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement, dated as of June 10, 2016 (the “Purchase Agreement”), among the Company, Butterfly and all of the shareholders of Butterfly, as amended.

NOTE 2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Use of estimates – The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Cash and cash equivalents – For financial statement presentation purposes, the Company considers all short term investments with a maturity date of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Income Tax – The Company accounts for income taxes under ASC 740 “Income Taxes” which codified SFAS 109, “Accounting for Income Taxes.” under the asset and liability method of ASC 740, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statements carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. Under ASC 740, the effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period the enactment occurs. A valuation allowance is provided for certain deferred tax assets if it is more likely than not that the Company will not realize tax assets through future operations.

Basic and Diluted Net Income (Loss) Per Share – The Company computes net income (loss) per share in accordance with ASC 260 “Earnings Per Share” which codified SFAS No. 128. “Earnings per Share.” ASC 260 requires presentation of both basic and diluted earnings per share (EPS) on the face of the income statement. Basic EPS is computed by dividing net income (loss) available to common shareholders (numerator) by the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding during the period. If applicable, diluted earnings per share assume the conversion, exercise or issuance of all common stock instruments such as options, warrants and convertible securities, unless the effect is to reduce a loss or increase earnings per share. Diluted EPS excludes all dilutive potential shares if their effect is anti-dilutive.

Intangible Asset – The Company is no longer developing software. The software was determined to be completely impaired during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2017 and fully written off at that time.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company measures assets and liabilities at fair value based on an expected exit price as defined by the authoritative guidance on fair value measurements, which represents the amount that would be received on the sale of an asset or paid to transfer a liability, as the case may be, in an orderly transaction between market participants. As such, fair value may be based on assumptions that market participants would use in pricing an asset or liability. The authoritative guidance on fair value measurements establishes a consistent framework for measuring fair value on either a recurring or nonrecurring basis whereby inputs, used in valuation techniques, are assigned a hierarchical level.

The following are the hierarchical levels of inputs to measure fair value:

- Level 1 – Observable inputs that reflect quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2 – Inputs reflect quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in markets that are not active; quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets; inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the assets or liabilities; or inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.
- Level 3 – Unobservable inputs reflecting the Company’s assumptions incorporated in valuation techniques used to determine fair value. These assumptions are required to be consistent with market participant assumptions that are reasonably available.

The carrying amounts of the Company’s financial assets and liabilities, such as cash, prepaid expenses, other current assets, accounts payable & accrued expenses, certain notes payable and notes payable – related party, approximate their fair values because of the short maturity of these instruments.

The Company accounts for its derivative liabilities, at fair value, on a recurring basis under level 3. See Note 8.

Embedded Conversion Features

The Company evaluates embedded conversion features within convertible debt under ASC 815 “Derivatives and Hedging” to determine whether the embedded conversion feature(s) should be bifurcated from the host instrument and accounted for as a derivative at fair value with changes in fair value recorded in earnings. If the conversion feature does not require derivative treatment under ASC 815, the instrument is evaluated under ASC 470-20 “Debt with Conversion and Other Options” for consideration of any beneficial conversion feature.

Derivative Financial Instruments

The Company does not use derivative instruments to hedge exposures to cash flow, market, or foreign currency risks. The Company evaluates all of its financial instruments, including stock purchase warrants, to determine if such instruments are derivatives or contain features that qualify as embedded derivatives. For derivative financial instruments that are accounted for as liabilities, the derivative instrument is initially recorded at its fair value and is then re-valued at each reporting date, with changes in the fair value reported as charges or credits to income.

For option-based simple derivative financial instruments, the Company uses the Black-Scholes option-pricing model to value the derivative instruments at inception and subsequent valuation dates. The classification of derivative instruments, including whether such instruments should be recorded as liabilities or as equity, is re-assessed at the end of each reporting period.

Debt Issue Costs and Debt Discount

The Company may record debt issue costs and/or debt discounts in connection with raising funds through the issuance of debt. These costs may be paid in the form of cash, or equity (such as warrants). These costs are amortized to interest expense over the life of the debt. If a conversion of the underlying debt occurs, a proportionate share of the unamortized amounts is immediately expensed.

Stock based compensation – ASC 718 “Compensation Stock Compensation” codified SFAS No. 123 prescribes accounting and reporting standards for all stock based compensation plans payments award to employees, including employee stock options, restricted stock, employee stock purchase plans and stock appreciation rights, which may be classified as either equity or liabilities. The Company should determine if a present obligation to settle the share based payment transaction in cash or other assets exists. A present obligation to settle in cash or other assets exists if: (a) the option to settle by issuing equity instruments lacks commercial substance or (b) the present obligation is implied because of an entity’s past practices or stated policies. If a present obligation exists, the transaction should be recognized as a liability; otherwise, the transaction should be recognized as equity.

The Company accounts for stock based compensation issued to nonemployees and consultants in accordance with the provisions of ASC 50550 “Equity Based Payments to Non-Employees” which codified SFAS 123 and the Emerging Issues Task Force consensus in Issue No. 9618, “Accounting for Equity Instruments that are Issued to Other Than Employees for Acquiring or in Conjunction with Selling, Goods or Services”. Measurement of share based payment transactions with nonemployees shall be based on the fair value of whichever is more reliably measurable: (a) the goods or services received; or (b) the equity instruments issued. The fair value of the share based payment transaction should be determined at the earlier of performance commitment date or performance completion date.

Recognition of Revenues – The Company recognizes revenue in accordance with Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 104, “Revenue Recognition in Financial Statements”. This statement established that revenue can be recognized when persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, the services have been delivered, all significant contractual obligations have been satisfied, the fee is fixed or determinable and collection is reasonably assured.

Subsequent Events – The Company follows the guidance in Section 855-10-50 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification for the disclosure of subsequent events. The Company will evaluate subsequent events through the date when the financial statements are issued.

Pursuant to ASU 2010-09 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification, the Company as an SEC filer considers its financial statements issued when they are widely distributed to users, such as through filing them on EDGAR.

Recent Pronouncements – The Company reviewed all recent accounting pronouncements issued by the FASB (including its Emerging Issues Task Force), the AICPA, and the SEC and they did not or are not believed by management to have a material impact on the Company’s present or future financial statements.

NOTE 3. UNCERTAINTY OF ABILITY TO CONTINUE AS A GOING CONCERN

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates the realization of assets and the settlement of liabilities and commitments in the normal course of business. As reflected in the accompanying financial statements, the Company has minimal revenues, net accumulated losses since inception and a shareholders’ deficit of $(7,070,255). These factors raise doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern. The ability of the Company to continue as a going concern is dependent on management funding operating costs and the successful production and sales release of the Life Clips camera. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might be necessary if the Company is unable to continue as a going concern.

NOTE 4. NOTES PAYABLE

On July 14, 2016 the Company issued a $30,000 promissory note to NUWA Group, LLC. The promissory note is not convertible into any of the equity securities of the Company. The effective interest rate is 5.00% per annum, calculated yearly not in advance. The note was to be repaid in full on October 14, 2016 and is past due/in default. Note proceeds were used for operating expenses.

Pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement by and among Butterfly Energy, LTD and the Company, on July 11, 2016 the Company issued a $500,000 Promissory Note and Stock Pledge Agreement to the former shareholders of Butterfly Energy, LTD. The promissory note is not convertible into any of the equity securities of the Company. The effective interest rate is 1.00% with a default interest rate of 10.00%. The note is to be repaid in two (2) payments, $250,000 on October 11, 2016 and the balance due on February 13, 2017. The Company has not paid the amounts due under this note. See Note 12.

On September 25, 2017, Huey Long, on behalf of the Company, without Board approval, entered into a Mutual Release Agreement and 12% Promissory Note with Scott Silverman. The note was in a principal amount of $26,500 and matured on March 1, 2018. The Company is currently in negotiations with Mr. Silverman.

At September 30, 2017 and June 30, 2017 the Company had notes payable in the amount of $556,500 and $530,000, respectively.

NOTE 5. CONVERTIBLE DEBT AND WARRANTS

The Company has recorded derivative liabilities associated with convertible debt instruments and warrants, as more fully discussed at Note 8.

(A) Convertible Notes and Warrants

On October 2, 2015, the Company completed an offering of its 3.85% Convertible Promissory Notes (the “3.85% Notes”) in the aggregate principal amount of $617,578 and on December 7, 2015 the Company completed an offering of its 10% Convertible Promissory Notes (the “10% Notes”) in the aggregate principal amount of $250,000 (the “10% Notes”, and together with the 3.85% Notes, each a “Note” and collectively, the “Notes”), as applicable, with certain “accredited investors” (the “Investors”), as defined under Regulation D, Rule 501 of the Securities Act. The entire principal amount of the Notes remaining outstanding at September 30, 2017 was $299,064, such amount being exclusive of securities converted into the Notes separate from the offering of the Notes. Pursuant to the offering of the Notes, the Company received $617,578 and $250,000 in net proceeds on October 2, 2015 and December 7, 2015, respectively.

In addition to the terms customarily included in such instruments, the Notes began accruing interest on the date that each Investor submitted the principal balance of such Investor’s Note, with the interest thereon becoming due and payable on the two-year anniversary of said date. Upon a default of the Notes, the interest rate will increase to 18%. The principal balance of each Note and all unpaid interest will become due and payable twenty-four (24) months after the date of issuance. The Notes may be prepaid with or without a penalty depending on the date of the prepayment. The principal and interest under the 3.85% Notes are converted at $0.026. The principal and interest under the 10% Notes are convertible into shares of the Company’s common stock at 75% times the Volume Weighted Average Price for a 5 days period prior to the conversion date as quoted on the OTC market and pursuant to the terms of a Security Purchase Agreement, dated as of October 2, 2015 and December 7, 2015, as applicable, by and between the Company and each Investor. The balances of these Notes are past due/in default.

In connection with the Notes Offering, the Company entered into Registration Rights Agreements, each dated as of October 2, 2015 and December 7, 2015 and each by and between us and each of the Investors.

The Company entered into convertible notes with eleven third party accredited investors from December 2015 to December 2016. In addition to the terms customarily included in such instruments, the Notes began accruing interest on the date that each Investor submitted the principal balance of such Investor’s Note, with the interest thereon becoming due and payable on terms specified in said date (see below). Interest rates range from 3.85% to 10% and are due at various dates from August 2016 to March 2018. These notes are convertible at any time by the investor, prior to the note principal and interest being repaid at rates ranging from $0.006 to $0.033 per share, subject to change due to a ratchet feature contained in most of the notes.

The Company has determined that the conversion feature of the Notes represents an embedded derivative since the Notes are convertible into a variable number of shares upon conversion. Accordingly, the Notes are not considered to be conventional debt and the embedded conversion feature must be bifurcated from the debt host and accounted for as a derivative liability. See Note 7 for further discussion.

Conversion Price for all the notes listed in the table below is 50% of the average of the lowest three trading prices during the 20 trading day period prior to the conversion date.

The Company has determined that the conversion feature of the Notes represents an embedded derivative since the Notes are convertible into a variable number of shares upon conversion. Accordingly, the Notes are not considered to be conventional debt and the embedded conversion feature must be bifurcated from the debt host and accounted for as a derivative liability. See Note 8 for further discussion.

(B) Terms of Debt

The debt carries interest between 3.85%, 10% and 18% and is due in October 2017 through March 2019

All convertible debt in connection with the Notes Offering are convertible at $0.026 and $0.033/share (on September 30, 2017), however, the Notes include a “ratchet feature”, which allows for a lower conversion price based on market prices.

(C) Future Commitments

At September 30, 2017, the Company has outstanding convertible debt of $2,396,776 which is payable within the next fifteen months.

NOTE 6. DERIVATIVE LIABILITIES

The Company identified conversion features embedded within convertible debt and warrants issued for the period ended September 30, 2017. The Company has determined that the features associated with the embedded conversion option, in the form a ratchet provision, should be accounted for at fair value, as a derivative liability, as the Company cannot determine if a sufficient number of shares would be available to settle all potential future conversion and warrant transactions.

The warrant are classified as liabilities or tainted

The convertible notes will generate derivative liabilities.

	Warrant	Convertible notes	Total

The fair value at the commitment and re-measurement dates for the Company's derivative liabilities were based upon the following management assumptions at September 30, 2017, using the lattice binomial valuation model:

	Commitment Date	Re-measurement Date
Expected dividends	0%	0%
Expected volatility	220%	261%
Expected term	0.5 to 3 years	0.10-2.87 years

NOTE 7. CONVERTIBLE DEBT - NET

The Company recorded the debt discount to the extent of the gross proceeds raised, and expensed immediately the remaining fair value of the derivative liability, as it exceeded the gross proceeds of the note.

The Company recorded debt discount of $402,916 and $407,905 as of September 30, 2017 and 2016, respectively.

Accumulated amortization of debt discount amounted to $615,489 as of September 30, 2017 and $980,034 for the year ended June 30, 2017.

The Board may issue shares of Preferred Stock in one or more series and fix the rights, preferences and privileges thereof, including voting rights, terms of redemption, redemption prices, liquidation preferences, number of shares constituting any series or the designation of such series, without further vote or action by the stockholders.

On June 28, 2017, the Company filed Articles of Amendment to authorize an increase in the number of authorized shares of Common Stock from 300,000,000 to 800,000,000.

Preferred Stock

Effective as of May 19, 2017, the Company amended its Articles of Incorporation to designate 1,000,000 shares of preferred stock as Series A Preferred Stock, with a par value of $0.001 per share (the "Series A Stock"). Each share of Series A Stock ranks, with respect to dividend rights and rights upon liquidation, winding up or dissolution of the Company, the same as the common stock of the Company, par value $0.001 per share (the "Common Stock") and is not entitled to any specific dividends or other distributions, other than those declared by the Board of Directors. Each share of Series A Stock has 100 votes on any matter submitted to the shareholders of the Company, and the Series A Stock votes together with the holders of the outstanding shares of all other capital stock of the Company (including the Common Stock and any other series of preferred stock then outstanding), and not as a separate class, series or voting group on any such matter. The Series A Preferred Stock is not transferrable by the holder, and may be redeemed by the Company at any time for the par value. In the event that the holder of Series A Preferred Stock who is an employee or officer of the Company leaves their position as an employee or officer of the Company for any reason, the Series A Preferred Stock held by that holder will be automatically cancelled and will revert to being authorized and unissued shares of Series A Preferred Stock. The Series A Stock is not convertible into any other class of shares of the Company.

On May 25, 2017, the Company issued 1,000,000 shares of Series A Stock to Victoria Rudman, the Company's Chief Financial Officer, in return for services provided to the Company by Ms. Rudman and to ensure Ms. Rudman's continued service to the Company.

Effective as of June 2, 2017, the Company amended its Articles of Incorporation by amending the Certificate of Designation for the Series A Stock to increase the number of votes that each share of Series A Stock has to 200 votes. Awards under the plan will be made at the discretion of the Board of Directors, although no awards have been made to date. Accordingly, the Company cannot currently determine the amount of awards that will be made under the plan.

General

Life Clips, Inc. (the “Company”) was incorporated in Wyoming on March 20, 2013 as Blue Sky Media Corporation and its principal business was developing, financing, producing and distributing motion pictures and related entertainment products. Following the Company’s October 2, 2015 acquisition of Klear Kapture, Inc. (“Klear Kapture”), the Company continued Klear Kapture’s business of developing a body camera and an auditable software solution suitable for use by law enforcement. The Company changed its name to Life Clips, Inc. on November 3, 2015 in order to better reflect its business operations at the time.

On July 11, 2016, the Company completed its previously announced acquisition (the “Acquisition”) of all of the outstanding equity securities of Butterfly Energy Ltd. (“Butterfly”), an Israel-based corporation that develops and distributes a single-use, cordless battery under the brand name Mobeego for use with cellular phones and other mobile devices. Butterfly is now a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company. The Acquisition was completed pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement, dated as of June 10, 2016 (the “Purchase Agreement”), among the Company, Butterfly and all of the shareholders of Butterfly, as amended.

Following the acquisition of Butterfly, we began to focus on developing three synergistic businesses:

- Expanding the Mobeego line of mobile accessories.
- Global Sourcing Services that includes product design, factory identification, negotiations, compliance qualification, and end-to-end logistics management to source products anywhere in the world.
- Sales and marketing services that provide an efficient path for companies to launch and market product into multi-channel retail and capture the maximum return on investment.

We plan to reengage in these initiatives as we seek potential new distributors, joint venture and strategic alliance partners and additional sources of financing to enable us to pursue marketing and future development and commercialization activities related to the Mobeego.

On March 30, 2017, the Company entered into a termination agreement with HP whereby they terminated the Trademark License Agreement. Pursuant to the terms of the termination agreement, the Company agreed to pay HP $62,500.00 by July 15, 2017 and $62,500.00 by October 15, 2017. As of March 30, 2017, the Company agreed to refrain from using any HP trademarks on any products and confirmed that the Company did not have any HP Branded Products in its inventory.

On June 22, 2017, the Company entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement (the “SPA”) with Ascenda, a company limited by shares incorporated under the laws of Independent State of Samoa (“Ascenda”), Hong Kong Ascenda International Co., Limited, a company limited by shares incorporated under the laws of Hong Kong (“Company HK”), and Hong Kong Ascenda International Co., Limited, a company limited by shares incorporated under the laws of Independent State of Samoa (“Company Samoa”, and collectively with Company HK, the “Targets” and each a “Target”).

Effective as of November 24, 2017, Huey Long, the Company’s Chief Executive Officer and a member of its board of directors, resigned his position as an officer and director of the Company as previously disclosed by the Company. Further, on November 27, 2017, Seller, Company HK, Company Samoa and Donald Ruan entered into a Rescission and Mutual Release Agreement (the “Rescission Agreement”) pursuant to which the parties thereto agreed to rescind, ab initio, the SPA. As a result of the Rescission Agreement, the acquisition of the Targets is deemed not to have occurred, and the note issued by the Company as partial consideration for the acquisition was terminated and rescinded ab initio, and will be of no further force or effect. As a result of these events, and the Company’s efforts to secure additional financing and additional partners to expand sales of its Mobeego product line, the Company is no longer seeking to launch its planned global sourcing business with Textiss USA, Misaki Corporation and Axpert Company Limited as previously disclosed.

On March 30, 2018, Victoria Rudman was named the Company's Interim Chief Executive Officer.

Total operating expenses were $193,602 compared with $1,911,442 for the three months ended September 30, 2017 and 2016, respectively. The decrease is directly related to lower professional fees and other G&A expenses.

The net income was primarily due to calculations of SFAS 123R, which requires that companies use a fair value method to value stock options and other forms of share-based payments and recognize the related compensation expense in calculating net earnings. SFAS 123R applies to all companies that have issued stock options and other stock-based compensation, whether the firm is a large public company with actively traded, liquid stock, a public company whose stock is thinly traded, or a private company.

The Company's cash was generated from a series of convertible notes issued to non-related third parties, and two promissory notes to non-related third party of $26,500 and $30,000. The Company plans to raise additional working capital via additional notes or equity sales to ensure that it will have enough cash to fund its primary operation for the next twelve (12) months.

("Batterfly") as partial consideration for the Company's July 11, 2016 acquisition of Batterfly. The Batterfly Acquisition Note requires the Company to make a payment of $250,000 on October 6, 2016 and $250,000 on February 13, 2017. The default letter states that the Company failed to pay the $250,000 payment due on October 6, 2016, which began to accrue interest of 11% from October 6, 2016. In addition, the default notice states that the Company owes $20,000 in aggregate to two of the Batterfly shareholders related to consulting fees associated with the Batterfly acquisition. Finally, the default notice states that a payment of $250,000, as well as an additional payment of $20,000 must be paid by January 23, 2017. The Company filed a claim against the sellers of Batterfly with the London Court of International Arbitration (LCIA Arbitration No: 173692) and on September 7, 2017 the parties entered into a Stipulation for Stay of Arbitration in the matter as they seek to negotiate a settlement of their claim. Settlement discussions are ongoing.

Other than as set forth above, we are not a party to any material legal proceedings, nor is our property the subject of any material legal proceeding.

Item 4. Mining Safety Disclosures

Not Applicable.

Item 5. Other Information

Effective as of May 19, 2017, the Company amended its Articles of Incorporation to designate the Series A Stock as a series of preferred stock of the Company. 1,000,000 shares of Series A Stock are authorized, with a par value of $0.001 per share. Each share of Series A Stock ranks, with respect to dividend rights and rights upon liquidation, winding up or dissolution of the Company, the same as the common stock of the Company, par value $0.001 per share (the "Common Stock") and is not entitled to any specific dividends or other distributions, other than those declared by the Board of Directors. Each share of Series A Stock has 100 votes on any matter submitted to the shareholders of the Company, and the Series A Stock votes together with the holders of the outstanding shares of all other capital stock of the Company (including the Common Stock and any other series of preferred stock then outstanding), and not as a separate class, series or voting group on any such matter. The Series A Preferred Stock is not transferrable by the holder, and may be redeemed by the Company at any time for the par value. In the event that the holder of Series A Preferred Stock who is an employee or officer of the Company leaves their position as an employee or officer of the Company for any reason, the Series A Preferred Stock held by that holder will be automatically cancelled and will revert to being authorized and unissued shares of Series A Preferred Stock. The Series A Preferred Stock is not convertible into any other class of shares of the Corporation.

On May 17 2017, the Company issued 1,000,000 shares of the Series A Preferred Stock to Victoria Rudman, the Company's Chief Financial Officer and a director, in return for services provided to the Company by Ms. Rudman and to ensure Ms. Rudman's continued service to the Company.
